A city's no place for a store like ours ›

The Tin Shed Visitor Experience ›

Far from the madding crowd

Located in beautiful rural South Canterbury and converted from an old grain shed in 1985, this big country store is set within a mini farm yard complete with animals, flourishing native gardens and old farm memorabilia.

The Tin Shed stocks what is probably New Zealand's most extensive range of quality New Zealand-made merino and merino possum garments (both on location and online).

All New Zealand-made

All of our merino and merino-possum knitwear, accessories, bedding and home furnishings are made in New Zealand. Experience one of the most extensive selections available.

Low overheads and low prices

No chance of expensive city rents pushing up our prices. We sell direct. Why pay more?

Pure New Zealand woolly and warm

Our team of friendly, knowledgeable staff are passionate about promoting the benefits of NZ-made merino wool and possum products.

Worth the journey

If you're travelling by car on Highway 1 from Christchurch to Queenstown or Mt Cook, you can't miss us. Just travel through Asburton and across the Rangitata bridges, then turn right onto Highway 79 and you'll find The Tin Shed a kilometre down the road. If you're travelling from Timaru or Dunedin, turn left onto Highway 79 just before Rangitata. If you want to find us from Queenstown or Geraldine, cross the one-way Orari bridge and then turn right onto Highway 79.

Open every day except Christmas Day 8.30am – 5pm.
